Message

Government of Andhra Pradesh has always been giving prime importance to human resource management and committed to offer transparent and efficient services to the citizens at grassroots level. Government strongly believes that building the capacity of elected panchayat raj representatives and officials is a cornerstone to empower Panchayat Raj Institutions and ensure the effective implementation of Rural Development Programmes.

I am happy to note that AMR-APARD has brought out an annual training plan incorporating various components that will enhance the knowledge and skills of trainees and bring about pro-poor attitudes among the trainees. Over a period of time APARD has established a strong network with many Central and State Government Organizations in providing training on various rural development issues.

I have no doubt that AMR-APARD will not only implement the calendar but will take up more initiatives for sustainable rural development keeping with its standing as a premier capacity development institution in the country.

Message

I am glad that AMR-APARD has brought out the Training Calendar for the year 2012-13, depicting the training targets to be achieved during the year. It is extremely relevant in the context of new National Training Policy 2012 formulated by the Government of India. The new policy focused on competency based approach which would look at the individual as a vital resource to be valued, motivated, developed and enabled to achieve the organisation's mission and objectives. Within this transformational process, it is essential to match individuals' competencies with the jobs they have to do and bridge competency gaps for current and future roles through training.

The training plan of AMR-APARD would need to address the gap between the existing and the required competencies and provide opportunities to the employees to develop their competencies. I am sure that AMR-APARD trainings will surely achieve these objectives.

I congratulate AMR-APARD for proposing well balanced training programmes for different levels of functionaries and wish them all success in implementing the training plan.

Foreword

Since its inception in 1954, AMR-APARD has been in the forefront in training and capacity building of functionaries working in rural areas. It has acquired wide reputation and professional recognition as a training organization and made remarkable progress in fulfilling its mission and objectives. Recent initiatives such as KEYCAP (Knowledgeable and Empowered Community is the Key to Rural Development in Andhra Pradesh), Malayaja (Empowerment of Tribal Communities) Samabhagam (Gender Equity and Empowerment of Women- some as leaders and all for girl's rights), Melukalayika (Collaboration with NGOs), etc., have made tremendous impact at state and national level and set certain pointers as to how development projects could be implemented.

Now, our trainings have become demand driven – many organizations like NTPC, UN Organizations, States of Jammu & Kashmir, Rajasthan, Jharkhand, Chhattisghar, Department of Personnel, GoI, have availed AMR- APARD's services in building the capacities of their man power.

I am glad to present the training calendar 2012-13 in which the information on proposed training programmes by AMR-APARD and ETCs for the year is systematically placed for the benefit of the stakeholders. The publication of this calendar enables the participating departments to plan their year ahead and make relief arrangements for their officers deputed to the training well in advance.

I express my sincere gratitude to Sri. D. Manikya Vara Prasad Rao garu, Hon'ble Minister for Rural Development and Sri. R. Subramanyam, IAS, Principal Secretary to Government (PR&RD) for their kind support and guidance to lead the institution in realizing its mission. I thank all the Centre Heads of APARD, particularly Dr.C.Krishna Mohan Rao, Centre Head, RD&T and the Principals of ETCs for their efforts in bringing out this calendar.

K.Chandramouli
