About TSIRD

Tealagana State Institute of Rural Development (TSIRD) is the State Institute of Rural Development of Telangana, an Apex Training Institute for Panchayat Raj & Rural Development department. It caters to the training needs of the Elected Representatives of Panchayat Raj institutions, functionaries of Panchayat Raj and Rural Development and other line Departments.

Objectives of the Institute

The major objective of the TSIRD is to constantly upgrade the knowledge, skills and attitudes of the Elected Representatives and functionaries of Panchayat Raj and Rural Development Departments for preparation of plans and implementation of schemes for economic and social well being of the people in rural areas by organizing training courses, conferences, workshops and seminars on various subjects. The Institute also:

- ❖ Promotes and coordinates research on its own and also through other agencies
- ❖ Undertakes publication of Newsletter and Research papers
- ❖ Establishes and maintains knowledge repository of information dissemination
- ❖ Assists the Panchayat Raj & Rural Development Departments in the Policy formulation
- ❖ Assists the Panchayat Raj & Rural Development Departments in the Policy formulation
- ❖ Collaborates with other Institutions, Associations and Societies in India or abroad, interested in similar objectives
- ❖ Prepares and publishes training material, modules and books for various functionaries

TSIRD has been playing a modest but credible role for the last (63) years by constantly facilitating qualitative changes in programme implementation through the process of capacity building and training. The Institute is functioning as a premier Institution to provide the necessary support to the Panchayat Raj & Rural Development Departments and the other State Government Agencies in areas of policy formulation, programme implementation, Training, Research, Evaluation, Documentation and in the dissemination of information.

The focus of the training programmes is to sensitize the trainees on the importance of good governance and on their role as facilitators in the development process. The objective is to develop the technical and management skills, organizational abilities, leadership qualities, and decision making skills of the clientele groups.

Clientele

The clientele consists of 133712 Elected Panchayat Raj Representatives, 37000 Panchayat Raj and Rural Development functionaries. Among the Elected Representatives, majority belongs to SC, ST and Women categories and in most instances are elected for the first time.

Location

The Institute is located in a sprawling campus in Rajendranagar, Hyderabad. It is surrounded by many prestigious Academic and Research Institutes like NIRD&PR, NAARM, MANAGE, ICM, TSCOB, WALAMTARI and others. The Campus of the Institute is easily accessible by road from Mehdiapatnam, Aramghar and Koti bus stops and also from the Railway Stations.

Training Strategy

The programs conducted by TSIRD are a mix of Face-to-Face direct training and distance learning, which includes satellite based training (T-SAT), video conferencing and e-learning. TSIRD has adopted a multi-pronged training approach, which consists of Direct Training and Cascading mode of Training. This allows the trainings to reach out large number of people more effectively.

Direct (Face-to-Face) institutional training programmes at TSIRD's campus and at its 2 Extension Training Centres is arranged for all key functionaries. Direct training is imparted for a period of two to seven days.

Cascading Model of Training is adopted for bigger groups like

Ward Members and other grass root level functionaries. Suitable trainers are identified, who may be NGOs, Retired Officials, or Elected Representative. These trainers are subjected to rigorous training at TSIRD in using participatory methodologies and they in turn reach out to larger groups of participants at various levels and train them. This mode of training works on the principle of Training of Trainers (ToT).
